

COFFEE MORNING

Are you a foreign resident, raising children in Nagasaki?
Would you like to: get together with other English-speakers?
relax?
have a chat?
laugh?
get advice?
share child-raising concerns?

Please join us for coffee at:

Local Cooperation Center.
Dept. of Child Development and Education,
Kwassui Women's University

Time: Saturday December 22nd, 2018.
10:30~12:00

Cost: Free!

Children welcome.

The staff and students of the Dept. of Child Development and Education would like to support the foreign community raising children in Nagasaki. We hope to provide a space for people to come together to share and gather advice and information.

To apply, or for more information contact: Karen Masatsugu

E-mail: karen@kwassui.ac.jp (English or Japanese) j-kodomo@kwassui.ac.jp (Japanese)

Tel: 095 - 822 - 4107 (extension 463)

Access: The Center is located on Hollander Slope (Oranda Zaka), close to the Shimin Biyoin Mae bus and streetcar stops. Follow the signs to Hollander Slope. Limited parking is available on campus.

Merry

Christmas.
